

Jess gets the chop
—now it's all grow

LONG
HAIRD

actor-singer
Jess Conrad
agreed to be shorn for a
role in ITV's
Space 1999.
Especially
as the shearer was glamorous
Catherine Schell.

But now it's all grow
again,
because Jess
is to play
the lead in the provincial tour of
Joseph And
The Amazing
Technicolor
Dreamcoat
starting in December.
And long hair is part of the garb.

gave him the chop (below).*

WOLFIE AND THE FLY BOY

★ IT'S a minor miracle in this week of blacked-out ITV screens and BBC repeats to find a comedy we're seeing for the first time.

But here's one. The CITIZEN SMITH (BBC-1, 8.0) episode was to have been transmitted last year. But a dispute kept it off the air.

Don't be misled by the title "Spanish Fly". It's the story of a Spanish revolutionary who arrives to help Wolfe Smith (Robert Lindsay) take Tooting by force.

But the Spaniard, Tony Anholt—best known for starring roles in "The Persuaders" and "Space 1999"—won't see the show. He is touring South Africa.

TONY ANHOTT
(BBC-1, 8.0)

Switch in time

ONE actress with a winning switch is Hazel McBride (left). After her recent appearance in the TV period piece "Dickens of London," she will journey through time to "Space 1999,"

And her travels don't end there. The new series of "Van der Valk" shows her . . . as an air hostess.
